The Austro-Hungarian Empire: Conventional and Non-Conventional Resources

Henry Wellisch

Sunday, October 14, 2007

1:30–4:30 PM

Gann Academy, 333 Forest Street, Waltham

Henry Wellisch escaped in 1940 from Vienna, where he was born. Over 20 years ago he began to investigate his family background, and he has concentrated his research on the Austro-Hungarian Empire, tracing his family back into the 18th century.

He has published numerous articles, including the section on Austria for the Avotaynu Guide to Jewish Genealogy, and has presented lectures to various genealogical groups, including international IAJGS conferences. He served as president of the JGS of Canada from 1993 to 1998.

This event is being co-sponsored by the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

Directions to Gann Academy: Take Route 128/95 to Exit 28 east. Follow Trapelo Road 2.3 mi. east (toward Belmont) and turn right onto Forest Street. The entrance to Gann Academy is 0.4 mi. further down the road on the left. From the east, take Trapelo Road to Forest St., which is the 3rd street on the left past the National Archives. For maps and detailed directions, visit our web page at gann.jgs.gb.org.

Admission is free for members, $5 for non-members.
Refreshments will be served.
